Scope and Content of the Collection

The William A. Glaser Collection consists of an eleven-page typed manuscript describing events on Iwo Jima from March 1945 to February 1946. The memoir, After the Battle, was written by William Glaser after he gave a speech on the topic at the "Iwo Jima Symposium and Reunion" in February of 2007. Glaser talks on the moving parts of the island and his involvement in the 232nd General Hospital, of which he was enlisted.

Arrangement

The collection arrived in numerical order and has been maintained during processing. The collection consists of one series:

Series One: Personal Memoir
