Biographical Note

Anthony Souza was born January 6th, 1905 in Koloa, Kauai, Territory Hawaii (Hawaii). Souza's family moved to Berkley, California, where he attended high school and some post-secondary education. He worked as a Construction and Land Surveyor before he joined the Army Air Force in May of 1943.

During WWII, Souza served with the 312nd Ferrying Squadron and was quickly promoted to Captain. Following WWII, Souza served the military in several capacities, including Instructor Pilot, Base Police Officer, and Provost Marshall. Throughout Souza's career he served overseas in England, France and Italy.

Souza retired in 1963 with the grade ranking of Lieutenant Colonel.

Scope and Content of the Collection

The Anthony Souza Collection consists of official military documents, records, forms, correspondences, and photographs related to Anthony Souza's career in the Army Air Force spanning from WWII to 1963. The collection also includes newspaper clippings and photographs regarding Souza's civilian life.

Arrangement

The collection arrived in no discernible order and was rearranged in to chronological series by PMML staff. The collection is contained within 2 legal size boxes. The collection is arranged into 2 series, military documents and personal scrapbook.

Series One: Military Documents, 1943-1963, n.d.

These documents pertain to Souza's service in the Army Air Force. They include orders, correspondence, forms, and individual flight records. This series also includes medical and supply records, financial documents, travel vouchers, and bulletins referencing military retirement. Items in the folders are arranged chronologically.

Series Two: Personal Scrapbook, 1927-1954, n.d.

The items in the scrapbook series pertain mostly to Souza's time in the military. The majority of photographs are taken of Souza at military bases where he was stationed. There are also photographs of Souza time in Europe, including aerial shots of France. The series contains a folder of photographs that have been removed from the original page. However the majority remain attached as presented in the scrapbook. The series also includes family photos, newspaper clippings, and the cover from the scrapbook. Items in the folders are arranged chronologically.
