IRAN: THE NEXT MILITARY FRONTIER?

WHAT: Front & Center with John Callaway, Chicago's only monthly public affairs program on military affairs, focuses on the complex role of Iran in the Middle East.

WHY: The September 2007 visit of Iran's president, Dr. Ahmadinejad, to the United States has brought U.S. relations with Iran into sharp focus. What role is Iran playing in the war on terror and in the U.S. role in Iraq? Does Iran's apparent supplying of weapons to Iraqi insurgents justify calls for action against that country?

WHERE: Pritzker Military Library, 610 N. Fairbanks Court, Chicago.

WHEN: The presentation and live webcast will begin on Thursday, September 6th, at 6:00 p.m.

HOW: This program is free and open to the public. Seating for this event is limited, so reservations are strongly recommended. Call 312.587.0234 or email events@pritzkermilitarylibrary.net.

WHO: Veteran Chicago journalist John Callaway moderates discussion with a panel including Danny Postel, author of Reading "Legitimation Crisis" in Tehran, Ahmad Sadri, Chair of Islamic World Studies at Lake Forest College, and Richard S. Williamson, former U.S. Representative to the U.N. Commission on Human Rights.

The Pritzker Military Library is a non-partisan military research library with over 25,000 historical, reference, biographical and rare books on military subjects, over 800 original antique military posters and prints, and other military artifacts from private donors and the collection of COL (IL) James N. Pritzker, ARNG (Ret.). Since opening in October 2003, the Library has produced over 160 programs including author events, interviews with Medal of Honor recipients, and Chicago's only monthly military affairs panel program, Front & Center with John Callaway.

The Library is a short walk from the CTA Red Line (Grand). Public parking is conveniently located at the corner of Fairbanks and Ohio.
