THE WAR ON TERROR: PROGRESS OR REGRESSION?

WHAT: Front & Center with John Callaway, Chicago's only monthly public affairs program on military affairs, analyzes the status of the War on Terror.

WHY: As we approach the 5th anniversary of the fall of Baghdad, where do America and her allies stand in the "Long War" in Iraq, Afghanistan, and around the world? Has "the surge" brought progress, as claimed by the military? Can the Iraqi leadership stabilize the country? How will the revised intelligence assessment affect our course with Iran and its nuclear program? Pakistan is facing a volatile domestic situation, in the aftermath of the assassination of Benazir Bhutto, and Afghanistan is coping with a resurgent Taliban. How do they play into the mix? Join John Callaway and his guests as they analyze the status of the War on Terror on "Front & Center."

WHERE: Pritzker Military Library, 610 N. Fairbanks Court, Chicago.

WHEN: The presentation and live webcast will begin on Thursday, January 31st, at 6:00 p.m.

HOW: This program is free and open to the public. Seating for this event is limited, so reservations are strongly recommended. Call 312.587.0234 or email events@pritzkermilitarylibrary.net.

WHO: Veteran Chicago journalist John Callaway moderates discussion with a panel including Pakistani community leader Javed Rathore, a longtime acquaintance of Bhutto, Dr. John "Jay" Williams of Loyola University, and Col. Dan Roper, Director of Counter-Insurgency Operations at Fort Leavenworth.

The Pritzker Military Library is a non-partisan research library with over 26,000 historical, reference, biographical and rare books on military subjects, 800 original antique military posters and prints, and other military artifacts from private donors and the collection of COL (IL) James N. Pritzker, ARNG (Ret.). Since opening in October 2003, the Library has produced over 170 programs including author events, panel discussions, and interviews with Medal of Honor recipients.
