PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

A Special Edition of
FRONT & CENTER with John Callaway
“What Really Happened at No Gun Ri?”
Tuesday, July 20th, 2004

On Tuesday, July 20th, Front & Center with John Callaway presents “What Really Happened at No Gun Ri?” at the Pritzker Military Library in Streeterville.

In July of 1950, during the first month of the Korean War, near the village of No Gun Ri, U. S. soldiers reportedly opened fire on a group of civilians gathered under a railroad bridge allegedly killing anywhere between 50 and 350 civilians. Over 50 years later, debate continues over what really happened.

Join host John Callaway as he welcomes to the Pritzker Military Library Charles Hanley, co-author of The Bridge at No Gun Ri: A Hidden Nightmare from the Korean War, and Robert L. Bateman, author of No Gun Ri: A Military History of the Korean War Incident, as they explore the different historical interpretations surrounding this event.

A complimentary wine and cheese reception will be held at 5:00 p.m. The program begins at 6:00 p.m. at the Library located at 610 North Fairbanks Court, 2nd Floor and will be webcast live at the Library’s website and recorded for rebroadcast on CSpan2 Book TV. The event is free and open to the public, however, reservations are encouraged.
